Subject: Blower Door Testing Requirements

Certification Requirements

The Routt County Regional Building Department under the 2018 Building Code Adoption is requiring blower door testing per; Section R402.4.1.2 Testing of the 2018 International Energy Conservation Code for all new residential dwellings in the City of Steamboat Springs, Towns of Oak Creek and Yampa, and Unincorporated Routt County.

The Routt County Regional Building Department will accept Blower Door Testing results from 3rd Party companies or individuals who are certified by either RESNET or BPI to perform this test. All certified installers shall include their certificates of certification along with the Blower Door Testing results or report to the Building Department. All reports can be emailed to Building@co.routt.co.us and we will review the report and place it on file with the associated permit record.

Sincerely,
